

Bicentennial Park

An emerald gym located in the 300 block of Ranch Road to Forest Hills encompassing 19.5 acres of Providence Creek. The property was deeded to the City of Reedsport by International Paper Company in 1965 restricting the land to recreational use as a public park for public educational purposes. The park features a 9-hole disc golf course with two variations, a large walking path shaded by the overhead trees and a bridge across the creek.
